Online classes appear on your schedule from 7:00 to 7:30 a.m., but you are not required to log in at that time. Actual class participation is determined by you based on your schedule or as communicated by your instructor.

Online course delivery requires you have access to a computer and reliable internet to receive instruction and participate in class activities. While there are no scheduled meeting times, you are responsible for meeting course deadlines as set by the instructor. For additional information about online resources available at Northwood Tech go to https://learningcommons.northwoodtech.edu/resources

>This course will be delivered virtually using web conferencing in real-time on the days and times scheduled. Attendance is expected during designated class hours by logging into your course remotely. Students will not be on campus to attend this course.

❖ This class is offered in the "Your Choice" format for which you may choose to attend class in person, complete the class online, or a combination of the two.

You can expect the following from the class:

• Class attendance is not required.

• There are lectures from the instructor that will be uploaded to Blackboard for online viewing.

• You will be responsible for work team collaboration throughout the course as scheduled.

• Assignments are submitted online through Blackboard unless otherwise required by the instructor.

• There are strict deadlines and assignment requirements.

• Your instructor will support your efforts throughout your learning experience.

• You determine your own level of success!

If your plan is to complete your coursework at a campus, choose Your Choice.

If your plan is to complete your coursework without attending at a campus, choose Your Choice Online.

♦This class is taught in a traditional classroom method. You are expected to attend each scheduled class meeting.
